The most striking thing about your music is how experimental yet accessible it is. In other words, it's hold onto with the lyrics. Very nice.

body: great,

L'Europe Parisien records is a way for us to "produce" album and promoting artists..We are working with graphists and i can masterised the sound.

We accept new artists if the demo is approve by the LEEP-fathers (Karim Blachir, Mr Georges and me).

the more important thing for now is that our stuf can be free downloadable on the site. Album are only in limited edition CD. and we are beginning to plan concerts..

my new label still in construction, it's gonna be a virtual area with more profusion.

notre village vous ouvre ses portes...

send me a demo, so i can tell you more...

I have been listening to your music today and I think it is excellent! I have also been to your official site and I find it very interesting indeed. The images and music really go together. "The Desert Song" and "The Wizard" are the ones I like most, though I haven't heard all of "Heart of Darkness" yet.
I am a great fan on VU, EN and P.TV!
Thanks for the invite to your music
(Jozek, Weymouth, Dorset, UK)

I have downloaded all the music from your main site, hope you don't mind :)
Currently lisyening to "Children Game" excellent stuff.
I have also mentioned you in my blog, have you checked out my group I moderate on?
(Jozek, Weymouth, Dorset, UK)

Sometimes I "find" bands and artists that really grip my imagination, The SPECTRAL PRiDE, Sailplanes and Singing Lawn Chairs come to mind. Well I "found" another: Grindwall. Grindwall have a sound that pulls in the direction of Throbbing Gristle and the Velvet Underground, a wall of sound that demands attention. "The Wizard", "Desert Song" and "Mind Walls" are excellent, not heard all their music yet, but what I've heard I like a lot. Some of the music is a very long ("Children Game" is over 20 mins long) but well worth listening too. I am very pleased to have found them.
I am currently listening to Grindwall
(... from Jozek blog, Weymouth, Dorset, UK)

I checked out your website, too - simple but very nice! I dig the black and whites - are they shot around Italy? The crazyshaped abandoned house on the contact us page is my fave. Well I like the old books falling off the shelves one too...
Good luck and let me know if you're coming out to our fabulous Twin Cities!
(Bridget, FOREST LAKE, MINNESOTA, US)

I really dig on "Song from the Ocean"...reminds me of early Velvets...and your singer has that lost Nico sound...and how cool is it to see Glenn Branca listed as an influence! Thanks again...keep on rockin!

*Out of the dark & into the light like a moth to a flame... torched... without a fight & with no-one to blame,
(but myself... myself)
oh so by myself... i hang out to dry, my head in shame, my reflection, my image, my dreams fade...
a shadow of my former self,*

*i become one...
with nothing...
a distant memory... an echo played once loved for who i was,
& not for who i am,
my emotion drained...
never to be displayed... again.

...:It's hard to tell what the sound input is sounds, a dynamic sound field of radio machinery with gentle sensibilities of musique-concrete turning into cold repetitive natural old voices. Some of these are the tape techniques of time-splicing in the dark mood, where sounds of a steady stream of hot lava and when silence is loops amplified. Most of the shining people go all the way out with nice cold lights hovering on them, disjointed drilling recordings drone nicely away, whether these are time things between high-pitched tone of something such as the recordings, or perhaps it triggers state of insomnia software mostly balanced scraping the darkness which can create processed thought enlarged sounds. It's hard to tell. A gently omnipresent surface even when the intelligence is an audible shining something somewhere in space. On a high, with stars, using headphones as if the crackles made in a form of soft and synthesizers, mostly atmospheres, the loss and decay of taped voices and man being logical in the crowd in the background and in the foreground call out during a noise that is a faceless piece of texture based on old recordings and indicates some of those places (which seems a more than unfocused decision). It's hard to tell. These synthesizers are now chopped up and re-processed as another fine blend of nature moments in a space where small stuff is assembled and amplified (or not) collage work is set against a hybrid of drone related music, that can suddenly change introspective into cold repetitive natural old voices. It's hard to tell. ....: .

Dear,
what a surprise to hear you have friends and relatives in Romania. I live close to Iasi, not very close but my town it's in the same region( of Moldavia).
Why entropy? It was the first state that tune made me fell into.
My intimate entropy... this word like a sponge that absorbes the drops, my esence, the remains of my body after being freed from the claw of those sounds.
I hope the above didn't sound very poetic, or ethereal... but very down to earth. Because entropy is not an illusion for me but a medium to balance myself...
I should stop here for now.
Thank your for you being interested in the revealing of my thoughts. I guess it's a way for you in finding out what your creation uprises in the humans.
Sincerely yours,

(Microwave Windows, Tampa\San Francisco, US)

About the songs.

Hi there i found your stuff very interesting to listen to. Especially Song from the Ocean.

I would say though that the recording quality of the other tracks and the indecipherable lyrics do not help your cause.

I hope you take this as constructive criticism as you have the potential to be spoken of in the same breath as bands like the Swans.

All you need to do is to mix the tracks differently and make sure the vocals are clearer and more audible.

(Zadkiel, Nottingham, Nottinghamshire, UK)

your sound is great!!

Thank you very much for the contact. There are still people moved by freedom in this world of music and it is good to know... Improvising, exploring, searching... those are great path to follow.
(PATH THROUGH THE MIST, France)

Do you hear it?. In Action 1 I did immediately.
The DOORS influence is there. I have some very unique poems that I wrote in 68-69 while influenced by the Doors. These Lyrics are really unused because I didn't think musically they could be. I would like to share them with you as the writer. If you perform them I can register them with ASCAP. One of my songs recently mad 28K in Royalties. Get back with me if you are interested in an 18 year olds Lyrics from 68 which really would suit your style. Anyway a Lawyer from San Fran's ASCAP people told me Italian is a great language for my songs to be translated into for rerecording.
Anyway this may be a uninteresting to you..
I almost forgot when I heard this UNIQUE throwback sound to the NEO-GOTHIC basis of the MORRISON sound...

Love your guys music and we are willing to play you guys on the radio. But we only add people who we play on the radio.

If you guys want to get on the radio, all we ask is for mp3's or a cd to put the music on the radio. We don't like taking the music off myspace as the quality of the music is not that good through myspace (usually the quality of music on myspace is 96 kbps not 128 kbps and that is what we stream at on the radio).

The best way to get music to us is through my gmail account or through snail mail.

So you can send the music either way.

My gmail account is "frekwalda@gmail.com" or through snail mail.

PHC Radio

P.O. Box 34060

196A Kingsway Garden Mall

Edmonton, AB, Canada

T5G 3G4

By sending us these MP3's or CD, you have giving us permission to stream, play, and perform on our station. These songs will not be made available for download.

(fade out, Italy)

hello.
i've been coming up with a couple of songs myself, and i was thinking about learning how to use loops and samples, to sort of spice up the traditional guitar sound, make it more interesting.
do you guys ever deal with people who want to learn more about loops and electronica, like do you teach people about it? or do you guys just play music together?
I was wondering, because if so, I would go down to Italy to check it all out... Where are you guys located?
take care,

I like your sound, particularly Talk Radio. Xx
(Fiona, London, UK)

Hello

Thanks for the request. You've got some interesting pictures, and I liked Talk Radio the best, though I couldn't get Motionless to play. The idea behind the sound reminds me of a Dutch group from years ago called GNOT, though you're more rhythmic and tuneful. Also reminded me in places of Joy Division (that's a big compliment from me).

I'd like to hear a hi-fi track as I don't think the low bit rate you used does your type of sound any favours.
(musineer, UK)

Hallo my friend,
How are you?
I received your package with Grindwall's CD Today. Grazie tanti! I like it!!!
The best track for me is: "Actyon I" and "E_Motion Less". Did you play "Night Whyspers" without pauses?
I'll put one of this track on Myspace's Profile when I change the songs. I hope you like, besides I can to make a review of this CD and try to put it into Elegy Ibérica magazine (April)... If it will be possible, we'll need the Cd cover art in good resolution (around 300dpi). Could you send me?

Ho ricevuto ed ascoltato il cd con molta curiosità. Che dire se non ripetere i miei apprezzamenti come già feci l'altra volta. Da domani inizio a trasmetterlo, poi possiamo pensare ad una futura intervista!! Ciao
Gianluca

(alternitalia, Radio Città Aperta 88.9 fm roma, Rome, Lazio, Italy)

Guarda, spenderò il tuo nome con gli organizzatori di una rassegna di musica eterodossa chiamata Scatole Sonore. So che stanno cercando ulteriori band da far suonare, l'unica cosa che ignoro è se devono essere solo romani o va bene anche a livello nazionale.

Per l'intervista, mi puoi mandare un promemoria la prossima settimana?

Grazie

Gianluca

Apprezzo molto il vostro progetto. Continuate così.

Everyone loves the scene with your track! I will keep you posted when we are complete. Hi Giorgio and Gianmarco,
It was great to hear from you, and even better to hear your excellent music! I'm listening to 'Radio Talk' at present and will spend time with each track, I'm really enjoying them all. It's interesting to read about how you construct them as well.
I wondered if you've tried using an Adrenalinn II? Designed by Roger Linn and other synth geniuses, it's a beat-synched processor that you can put a guitar through. I'm using one LIVE (not multi-tracked) on 'Reservoir Road' and the effects are dictated by my guitar playing as it happens, not by any programming or editing. I just use mine in a live context, but I bet you would get some tremendous sounds from one in your studio.
Best wishes from Newcastle, England,
(Martin Craig, Northeast UK)

Hi Grindwall! Great Music You Had Created!
Cheers!
(Geraldine Png, Singapore / Los Angeles, US)

Greetings Grindwall, Your eyes show as many deep and full shades of fire as a thousand supernovas. Your essence is equal to the beauty of a galaxy. A starfish's lifelong hallucinations of gelatin pools and of actuaries floating upon the foam and reciprocal ohm. Your hair sends forth a sheen reminiscent of golden sunlight winding through shadows. Cities crumble, skies ignite spontaneously in your presence. I desire to see life through your hallucinations so that they massage my viscera into an eternal state of turgid flux. May you be as vivid as your hallucinations. Imagine you meander through love as a river delta contemplating levitation. You are dressed with filaments and people take pains to make you fully incandescent this evening. How it passes there and back again like a tear drop glistening in moonlight. Panoramic aromavision is the future. All my thoughts are lost to your graceful gaze? Come, let me suckle your fingers that I may absorb and lose myself in the wise and beautiful starlight that is you.

Hi guys,

After the successful DVD project it's wonderful to say Clive Jones and Geoff Griffith have been working hard on new Black Widow music. It's been hoped that Romeo Challenger will be on drums!

That's a great idea about playing together so maybe you'll send a message directly to Clive Jones - he'll be happy to give his reply. Clive's email address is smackmanagement@aol.com

Have a great 2008 as well! Best wishes from BLACK WIDOW - have a great new year 2008!!!

Hello Grindwall,

I hope you are doing well. I am writing to re-introduce myself. After discovering you here on MySpace I've come to really admire your work.

A lot has been going on and as it turns out it looks like I'll be doing some gigs near you in late April. Details are below in a letter I've been sending around to promoters. With this tour that is developing we would certainly like to perform as much as possible while we are in Europe. If you have some suggestions please let me know. Perhaps my trio could share a bill with your band? Perhaps you and I could do a duo concert? Or you and I could play with people of your choice? I look forward to hearing from you.

with gratitude and respect,

1.18.08 to European promoters

Hello,

I am a NYC based avant jazz/improv guitarist with a trio called TOTEM. This band features bassist Tom Blancarte and drummer Andrew Drury. Bios and music can be found at our MySpace site:

www.myspace.com/nytotem

On April 29 ,we are scheduled to perform in Strasbourg, France at the Musée d'Art moderne et contemporain. We will be in Geneva on May 2.

We would like to perform as much as possible while we are in Europe. Is there a possibility for us to work together on some concerts between April 23- May 10? If the spring doesn't work, we are available for other times in the year, specifically the fall.

Sound clips of the band can be found at our MySpace site. If you are interested in hearing more please let me know. We recently recorded tracks for a 2008 release and at your request I can send you the secret link that contains mp3 files of our session. Once there, you can listen to our CD in full length in mp3 format.

Photos and CDR's will be supplied upon request.

By the way, my 2007 CD, Inner Constellation, got over 30 critically acclaimed reviews worldwide. INNER CONSTELLATION Volume 1 (nemu007) was voted one of the Top 10 Jazz CD's in 2007 by:

Ken Waxman (Coda)

kind regards

Grindwall is a project that involves musicians coming from blues, rock and psychedelic experience.

It's a workshop working around noise and sound walls concepts, using minimal patterns to construct songs. Their heavy sound comes basically from two, or more, electric guitars improvising on simple bass and drums lines, using loops and repeating phrases to grow up musical ideas and to improve tension.

Main idea is to build powerful music structures exploring the dark side of mind, in a continuous mantra that grows up from level to level, until chaos arrives.

Songs are built on two different, and opposite, ideas: short structures based on stiff minimal patterns, and long improvising areas based on repeating beat lines.

Lyrics are inspired by underground lectures. Music refers to 60's acid concerts, dark groups experiences, experimental noise bands, contemporary minimal music and, above all, Lou Reed, Velvet Underground, Glenn Branca and Sonic Youth.

We hope you enjoy our music. Have a nice trip.
